Dear Friends,

It isn't always true that the love we give will be returned. Maybe somewhere along your life's journey you felt deep love for someone but it remained a one sided love. That's true of relations between people and God too. At the end of last Sunday's Gospel Reading, we were told that many came to believe in Jesus but not all, and 'Jesus did not trust himself to them; he never needed evidence about any man; he could tell what a man had in him'.

Jesus well knew the fickleness of human nature.

Today we read that Nicodemus came to visit Jesus. He was a good man and a leader among the Jews. Nicodemus is mentioned three times in the Scriptures, always in John's Gospel. His caution in coming at night implies the heavy opposition to Jesus in Jerusalem and his desire not to be seen by others. This is the only time on record that Nicodemus actually met Jesus. To help his night visitor to come into the light of understanding, Jesus uses a story that would have been well known by Nicodemus, how in the wilderness after the Israelites deliverance from Egypt, the people grumble against God and are struck by a plague of serpents whose bite brought death. They admit their sinfulness to Moses and appeal to him for help. God tells Moses to forge a bronze serpent, fix it to a standard and raise it up before the people. If they gaze upon it they will be saved. The rabbis explained that it wasn't the bronze serpent that gave life but God, who commanded Moses to act in this way. The bronze serpent was only a sign and symbol to point to God.

Jesus uses this story as a parable of himself. He told Nicodemus that he himself would be lifted up on the cross for the salvation of the world. Through Nicodemus he also tells us, that if we look at Jesus and believe he can give us eternal life. Jesus summed it all up by saying that "God loved the world so much, that he gave his only son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life". God's love is so deep and broad that it embraces the whole world. St Augustine said, "God loves each one of us as if there was only one of us to love." The very fact that God gave his only son to come into this world and die, showed the incredible extent of God's love. As we gaze upon Jesus on the cross we ask ourselves how God can love me so much?

CHRISTIAN MEDITATION:

Time: 4pm
every Wednesday

But love offered is not necessarily love accepted. Jesus never tried to force people to believe in him or follow him. He told his disciples on mission, that if people don't accept you and the message you bring, walk away and shake the dust from your feet. We can turn away from God's love and the messages he sends us through our friends, neighbours, sacraments and other events of our lives. St Teresa of Avila once wrote that if for one instance we let the love of God penetrate our heart, then all things will become easy for us. To live in God's love is to live in the light.

We may be weighed down with the pressures, troubles and worries of life but in the midst of this, let us take to heart that God loves us so much that he promise us life; life in him here and now and eternal life.

This love drives away darkness and brings us into the light. Nicodemus who stealthily came to Jesus at night did come into the light and we read in John's Gospel that he is there at the end of Jesus earthly life. As Jesus is prepared for burial Nicodemus is there, bringing spices to help prepare Jesus' body for the tomb.

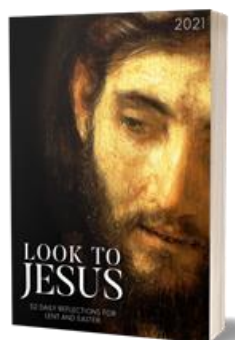

God bless,

Fr Ashley Warbrooke - Parish Priest

Arsad, an Indonesian farmer, had no toilet at home and was often sick due to the practice of open defecation. Through Caritas Australia's support, Arsad and his community improved hygiene and sanitation, and funded their own toilets.

Please donate to Project Compassion 2021 and help improve health and wellbeing of communities in Indonesia so they can work towards eradicating poverty, providing a better future for all. You can donate through Parish boxes and envelopes.
